

The clear and unavoidable implication of following Christ—of walking worthy of the calling to which we've been called—is that we will be assaulted spiritually for doing so.

How do we stand—and not fall—in the face of these spiritual assaults?

Find strength in God alone (vs. 10)

Get equipped with the spiritual essentials (vs. 11a)

